Arnold Has Got To Be A Breast Man.

My Daughter Candis reminded me that she also was also 15 when we did the drive up the California coast as Cami and I did. Ahh, I thought I recognized the attitude. Candis had already put me through the, walking ten paces behind her, please don't talk to my friends, could you sit at another table, and this will be fine drop me right here routine some time ago. It's a little easier to take the 2nd time around but I still fail most Cami's instructions which tends to annoy her. Not too long ago I was privileged to overhear a conversation where Candis was telling Cami that she wanted to be there the day Cami discovered how brilliant their Father is. Cami just looked at her like she thought she was crazy!

I see that "Club 27" has welcomed another member. Amy Winehouse has joined fellow club members legendary blues guitarist Robert Johnson, Rudy Lewis of The Drifters, Brian Jones of The Stones, Janis Joplin, Jimi Hendrix, Jim Morrison, and Kurt Cobain. They all died at 27 from variations of the same disease with their best work still ahead of them. What a fking waste.

If you have a chance you might want to check out www.localmusicwall.com/winnipeg. It's a brand new project my Brother Reg is doing in Winnipeg. He's working out the kinks with it on CITI-FM before he launches it World Wide. My Daughter Candis who was born in Winnipeg is on there singing a few tune she wrote. Just click on C to sample her work. A love it vote would be greatly appreciated.

Is Pippa's 15 minutes up already. I think the only thing that could bring her back now would be a stolen sex tape.

Is it still bad luck if you've already sent that so called send "this special e mail to to your friends" and you get the same one from somebody else and you don't do it again.

Somebody has got to have compiled a list by now of the radio stations that were real sales friendly that also did real well in Arbitron.

The Arabs have one big flaw in their quest for World domination. The World will never revert back several centuries no matter what they do.

In looking at comparative photos of Arnold's Ex and the Mother of his newest child all I can figure is Arnold must have been a closet Breast Man.

Speaking of closets, John Picano alerted me to the fact that John Lennon's assistant Fred Seaman claims in the latter part of his life John was a closet right winger and a huge fan of Ronald Reagan. I don't believe it for a minute ... Yoko would have killed him!

Talking about John, Yoko claims that John lay awake at night wondering why Paul's songs were more popular than his.

300 years from now there will be an entirely new way of delivering product to the consumer but I bet some of that product will still contain some Lennon and McCartney tunes.

Bob Christy just checked in with the breaking news that one of the top teams in the Gay Softball World Series was just booted from the tournament for not being Gay enough.

Dr. Thomas Sowell claims that the only people who benefit from rent control are politicians. He also claims people who are Prejudice harm more people than people do who are Racist.

Just because you don't want it to be true doesn't change anything.

A Woman's toughest role may be in living up to what we Males already imagine them to be.

The only thing that gets you noticed when you're doing radio is when you do that thing that doesn't fit the sound.

Music is still only 25% of what affects the ratings even though most broadcasters work on it like it's the only thing.

I don't believe the basic instincts of humans have ever been involved in the evolutionary process but I do believe education can temper them.

I don't think Mother nature planned on things turning out this way and we may well be on our own now.

The people who don't accept No are much happier than those that do.

Have you ever heard a good story about a Record Company from a recording Artist.

Competition in Media has allowed us to instantly peek at the ugly side of life whether we want to or not.

Why do all the presidents think we were electing Santa Clause. None of them look even a bit like him but they sure like to act like him as they traipse around the globe handing out the free Billion Dollar Bills we don't have.

There's a rumor going around that my Daughters are throwing me a Birthday/Roast party this fall in California. I hear that Reid Reker will be attending the gala event but has declined the opportunity to do any roasting out of fear of retaliation. Damn! I have so much good stuff on him, it's a shame to waste it.

I definitely think there is a bias against Canadian acts at the Rock&Roll Hall Of Fame. How could Winnipeg's "Guess Who" not be in there. I'm playing the "Canadian Card" on this one. What's your opinion about this obvious snubbing ?
